EX PARTE APPLICATION FOR LEAVE AND DECLARATION

Take notice that the Applicant will apply ex parte on the next available sitting (or as soon thereafter as the Court may direct) for:

1. Leave to challenge the constitutionality of section 5(1)(a) of the Courts Service Act 1998 and section 7(1)(c) of the Garda Síochána Act 2005;

2. A declaration that these provisions are repugnant to the Constitution, specifically Articles 34.1 (judicial independence), 40.3 (vindication of rights), 6 (separation of powers), and 9.3 (fidelity to the nation);

3. Ex parte application for free legal aid;

4. Summons against arresting officers Garda John O'Sullivan, Mr. O'Coffey, and Mr. Anthony Maloney for battery and arbitrary incarceration;

5. Such interim relief as the Court deems fit, including directions for immediate filing of all pending ex parte applications refused yesterday, 18 March 2026, at Merchants Quay Courthouse, Limerick, and an order directing An Garda Síochána to produce CCTV footage or any other documents relating to the following incidents, listed in chronological order:

(1) Forensic HSE University Hospital Limerick, ward 5B, on 18 March 2025 (regarding arbitrary incarceration);
(2) Attempted murder by Garda on 7 June 2025, failure of Garda LK161 to investigate;
(3) Attack at Henry Street Garda Station circa 04:30 on 8 June 2025, led by Superintendent Mr. Andrew Lacey;
(4) Holding cell on 9 June 2025: Garda inability to understand habeas corpus (Order No. 84), writ of mandamus, Article 40.4.1° Bunreacht na hÉireann, as verified by Hon Justice Brian Cregan, McGreal v Court Services;

(5) District Court, Mulgrave Street, Limerick, Judge Harney proceedings on 10 June 2025;
(6) Limerick Prison, Mulgrave Street, on 10 June 2025;
(7) District Court, Mulgrave Street, Limerick, Judge Coolican proceedings on 11 June 2025 (two sittings);
(8) On 4 July 2025: harassment by Garda B... at the entrance to the Attorney General's office, failure of Gardaí at Pearse Street Garda Station to understand pluralistic ignorance and misfeasance, and refusal to take complaint against Mr. Fanning (AG) and the above Garda for obstruction;
(9) August 2025: harassment by Garda LK7 and battery by Garda LK... while the Applicant attended as first responder to an injured citizen;
(10) Circuit Criminal Court proceedings on 26 November 2025: harassment by Garda B100;
(11) On 26 November 2025, High Court Dublin, Court Office: refusal to file documents (not responsible);
(12) On 3 December 2025, High Court Dublin: harassment by Special Branch and Garda B187 Mr. McGrath;
(13) District Court Judge Harney proceedings on 10 December 2025 (in open court, where the Applicant's application was dismissed by Judge Harney as ultra vires);
(14) Merchants Quay Courthouse on 18 March 2026, Garda complaint registers, attendance records, and all other documents or attempts to seek judicial review.

all in respect of harassment by Gardaí, refusal of access to court, claims of "ultra vires" by Judge Harney in open court, refusals of de novo appeal by Judge Daly, documents returned to the Applicant, arbitrary incarceration, physical battery resulting in physical injuries through Superintendent Mr. Andrew Lacey, arbitrary strip searches resulting in indignity and humiliation, attempted murder, all perpetrated by members of An Garda Síochána, together with the abject failure of the Garda Síochána to investigate themselves, despite the Minister's Standards of Professional Behaviour Regulations 2025 (S.I. No. 116/2025), and the compromised nature of Fiosrú (the Office of the Police Ombudsman), the Garda Síochána Ombudsman Commission (GSOC), the Office of the Ombudsman (for Courts Service and HSE maladministration), Citizens Advice, Legal Aid Board, State Solicitors, DPP, Attorney General, Judicial Council, and every other authority or body petitioned by the Applicant in the last two years:

To: The Ceann Comhairle, Deputy Willie O'Dea, Senator D. Ryan (Limerick), Members of the Oireachtas, MEPs, European Commission, Bundesverfassungsgericht, Bundesgerichtshof, Landgericht, Amtsgericht, Verwaltungsgericht, Verwaltungsgerichtshof, Bundeskriminalamt, Generalbundesanwalt, Oberstaatsanwalt, Staatsanwalt, Polizei, Präsidium der Polizei, Ministerpräsident Herr Boris Rhein, Ministerpräsident Hessen Boris Rhein, Bundespräsident Frank-Walter Steinmeier, former Uachtarán Michael D. Higgins, current Uachtarán Catherine Connolly, Taoiseach Micheál Martin, and Tánaiste Simon Harris.

6. Relief in respect of the international aspects of my deportation and my arbitrary incarceration at Dublin Airport on 22 July 2022, including an order requiring production of all related documents;(InterPol, Garda, Bundespolizei), and further relief to demonstrate that Article 67 TFEU has utterly failed in two other judiciaries of the European Union; and further relief to demonstrate the constructive failure of the international transnational judiciary, in that if I cannot bring failures in other jurisdictions to court in any court, there is a dereliction and obstruction in the higher court system.

6.1 In particular, relief requiring the Department of Foreign Affairs to be brought into recourse, as during my arbitrary incarceration in the Federal Republic of Germany I found no consular support from the Department of Foreign Affairs—nor have I in the previous twenty years. If the Department of Foreign Affairs were capable of carrying out their official duties, the situation might not have developed to the stage it has become.

6.1.1 Even the application for a passport was made extremely difficult. The court is made aware that possession of a valid passport is a simple, fundamental requirement. Under § 8 FreizügG/EU, I am obliged to possess, carry, and present a valid passport (or recognised substitute) for entry, residence, and registration, including Hauptwohnsitz, throughout the Federal Republic of Germany. Failure to do so constitutes an administrative offence under § 10 FreizügG/EU, punishable by fines up to €2,500. The Irish authorities' persistent refusal to issue or renew my passport for several years rendered me effectively stateless within the Union: without identification, I was barred from Hauptwohnsitz registration (Meldegesetz § 17), court access (§ 78 ZPO requires proof of identity for filing or appearance), and social welfare benefits (all require Anmeldung). This is a direct, systemic obstruction of my free movement rights under Article 21 TFEU, and a gross violation of citizenship as the "fundamental status" of EU nationals (Grzelczyk, C-184/99). The Department of Foreign Affairs bears liability under Passports Act 2008, s. 7, mandatory issuance absent fraud or security risk, yet failed abjectly, arbitrarily, and without justification, in breach of Article 1 TEU (respect for human dignity, freedom, democracy, rule of law, and human rights). ECJ precedent confirms: states may not obstruct EU rights through administrative denial (Coman, C-673/16; Rottmann, C-135/08). The Irish State must be taken into recourse for this deliberate, repeated dereliction, leaving me exposed to fines, exclusion, and total paralysis in the Union.

6.1.2 I am a Bürger der Bundesrepublik Deutschland und auch Hessen; I stand to these republics as I do to Éire, I will have no other form of law. However, the arbitrary behaviour of the Polizei Präsidium Darmstadt is repugnant to the fundamental values of all constitutions. Judicial review is made impossible by abject failures and incompetence at every level of the executive and judicative. This behaviour is paralleled only in Ireland, DDR a dó.

6.1.3 As a naturalised Bundesbürger, holding unbeschränkter Aufenthaltstitel through marriage pursuant to § 28 AufenthG, I may not be deported under any circumstances. EU citizens forfeit residence rights solely under § 6 FreizügG/EU, for instance, insufficient means or public burden, and even then only following a rigorous proportionality assessment. Any expulsion must comply with § 60 AufenthG (prohibition where life or rights are endangered, or family ties exist) and Article 21 TFEU. My title was unlimited and unconditional: no criminal conviction, no acquittal required, no act whatsoever capable of revoking my EU residence rights. The deportation was wholly arbitrary, a capricious act devoid of legal basis, procedure, or justification. Furthermore, as a Hessian, I am entitled to settle anywhere within the republic: every person may establish residence where they choose, provided they respect fundamental rights and the Hessian Constitution. I lived that Constitution, Article 2 (Der Mensch ist frei. Er darf tun und lassen, was die Rechte anderer nicht verletzt oder die verfassungsmäßige Ordnung des Gemeinwesens nicht beeinträchtigt), Article 6 (Jedermann ist frei, sich aufzuhalten und niederzulassen, wo er will), and Articles 146, 147, 150 (duty to defend the Constitution, right to resist unconstitutional power, prohibition on altering democratic foundations), and the authorities flagrantly abused it, through active unlawful detention (§ 239 StGB), unechte Unterlassung (§ 13 StGB), perversion of justice (§ 339 StGB), and the tort of negligence: a breach of the duty of care owed to every citizen, as Lord Esher held in Donoghue v Stevenson, they could reasonably foresee that their arbitrary acts and omissions would injure me, yet did nothing.

6.1.4 The utter constructive failure of statutory duty will be noted after this court refuses, blocks, and simply does nothing, thereby confirming, in open record, that no effective remedy exists under Irish law, and rendering the Constitution's promise of justice a shallow shell, repugnant to the common good. Another farce, like von der Leyen's solemn words at the ECJ on 27 January 2025, declaring the Charter "a promise... that our Union would always stand up for universal rights, the freedoms and the dignity of all people." Yet by the behavior of all state authorities, cross-European, from Dublin to Darmstadt, the Charter is made a fool, nullified in practice, and left empty. Die Nullifizierung durch das Verhalten aller EU-Behörden der EU-Grundrechtecharta stellt mich in den skelettierten Zustand der befreiten Häftlinge aus Auschwitz.

6.1.5 I cannot point to a conspiracy as such requires cognitive abilities that I have not experienced in either jurisdiction. Goethe's Mephistopheles in Faust points to stupidity, plain, bureaucratic, soulcrushing incompetence. Not malice, just the void where duty should be. Considering the geopolitical disaster and ambitions to rearm, dulce bellum inexpertis comes to mind.

„Grau, teurer Freund, ist alle Theorie, / Und grün des Lebens goldner Baum.“

Grounds

The Applicant, a citizen exercising sovereignty under Crotty v An Taoiseach [1987] IR 713, holds standing to challenge these statutes as they delegate judicial authority to executive actors without qualification or oversight.

On 18 March 2026, at Merchants Quay Courthouse:
- Court Manager Siobhán O'Connor refused to receive or list ex parte motions at 10:15 hours, without lawful basis;
- A High Court judge vacated the courtroom circa 11:30 hours, leaving no session;
- Gardaí (LK183, unnamed sergeant, LK162) refused to accept or investigate complaints of obstruction (s.8 Criminal Justice (Public Order) Act 1994), coercion (common law, incorporating assault elements under s.2 Non-Fatal Offences Against the Person Act 1997), harassment (s.10 Non-Fatal Offences Against the Person Act 1997), perversion of the course of justice (common law), arbitrary incarceration, attempted murder, unlawful imprisonment, all perpetrated by members of the Gardaí, executive, and judiciary, citing no familiarity with Article 34;
- All conduct captured on CCTV, attendance records, and Applicant's notes.

These refusals demonstrate:
- Section 5(1)(a) of the Courts Service Act 1998 confers upon executive officers the function "to manage the courts", yet "courts" denotes, in constitutional terms, the sitting judge in session, embodying judicial authority. The judge and the court are inseparable: impartial, oath-bound, sovereign in adjudication. No executive prerogative extends thereto. The statutory phrase is constitutionally defective; it induces the erroneous belief that non-judicial personnel may command or obstruct judicial proceedings, as evidenced by the conduct of Siobhán O'Connor on 18 March 2026, whereby access was denied without lawful warrant.

- Section 7(1)(c) of the Garda Síochána Act 2005 imposes upon Gardaí the statutory duty "to vindicate the human rights of each individual", yet this confers judicative authority: assessing, enforcing, and determining rights claims without judicial oversight. Such power belongs exclusively to the sitting judge in session, oath-bound and impartial; no executive officer, however uniformed, may usurp it. The provision is constitutionally defective; it induces Gardaí to act as arbiters of rights, deciding access, complaints, and redress, as observed on 18 March 2026 when officers LK183, the unnamed sergeant, and LK162 refused to receive or investigate the Applicant's complaints, thereby denying vindication and rendering Article 40.3 illusory.

- The statutes, though honestly drafted, are inadequate: they confer judicial functions on unqualified executive personnel, rendering access illusory and the rule of law hollow. More fundamentally, they reveal the constrained constitutional vision of the elected representatives who passed them, evident in their failure to protect separation of powers, judicial independence, or effective remedy under Articles 34.1, 40.3, and 6, and their short-sightedness, which let those flaws ripple unchecked into Ireland's place in the European Union.

The rule of law, as affirmed by Mr Justice Brian Cregan on 4 March 2026, "We live in a democracy governed by the rule of law and not a theocracy, governed by the Burke family", demands that law serve democracy alone. As a citizen, I hold sovereignty under Crotty v An Taoiseach [1987] IR 713: I may challenge any law, even passed unanimously by the Oireachtas, that I deem repugnant to the Constitution or the common good. Section 5(1)(a) of the Courts Service Act 1998 and section 7(1)(c) of the Garda Síochána Act 2005 delegate judicial power to unqualified executive actors, subverting Articles 34.1, 40.3, and 6. I exercise that right now. The Supreme Court is open to direct constitutional challenge under Article 34.4.3, where lower access is denied, as yesterday at Merchants Quay, making High Court recourse illusory. No remedy equals no justice. It is apparent that no effective remedy exists: access to courts is obstructed, complaints ignored, judicial review illusory, contrary to Article 40.3 Bunreacht na hÉireann, as vindicated in McFarlane v Ireland (ECtHR 10 September 2010) and O'Keeffe v Hickey [2009] IESC 39, where remedy must be adequate, prompt, proportionate, not illusory.

Relief sought:

- Declaration of repugnancy;
- Mandamus for immediate filing of pending applications;
- Order directing An Garda Síochána to produce CCTV footage from Merchants Quay Courthouse on 18 March 2026, Garda complaint registers, attendance records, and all other documents or attempts to seek judicial review;
- Costs;
- Such further relief as the Court sees fit.

Dated this 20th day of March 2026.

A Uas. Delaney:

Tá Garda LK183 ordaithe leis seo an tAire Dlí agus Cirt a imscrúdú as an gcoir indíotálach de chineál usurpation faoi Alt 6(1) den Offences Against the State Act, 1939 (“de ghníomh nó iompar ar bith eile”), a eascraíonn as mainneacht leanúnach reachtaíochta chun Acht na Seirbhíse Cúirteanna 1998 (alt 5) agus Acht an Gharda Síochána 2005 (alt 7) a shoiléiriú, rud a chuireann ar oifigigh cúirte agus Gardaí údarás breithiúnach a usurpáil trí théarmaí doiléire agus éagumas — contrártha le hAirteagail 34 agus 40.3 de Bhunreacht na hÉireann.

Is trua, contrártha le do threoir, go bhfuil an Ms. Siobhan O’Connor go soiléir lasmuigh de theorainneacha Bhunreacht na hÉireann agus go seasann sí mar fhigiúr lárnach sa mhí-úsáid leanúnach air.

De réir dealraimh, tá an Ard-Chúirt i mBaile Átha Cliath féin ionchlannaithe ag na hiompraíochtaí treallacha córasacha seo. Is tú an bastún deireanach de phoblachtánachas na hÉireann, a Uas. Delaney.

IN THE HIGH COURT
JUDICIAL REVIEW

DEREK O'BARRÓID v MINISTER FOR JUSTICE Mr.Jim O' Callaghan TD

EX PARTE APPLICATION FOR LEAVE AND INTERIM RELIEF

The Applicant will apply ex parte on Thursday 19 March 2026 (or next available sitting) for:

- Leave to seek judicial review;
- An order of mandamus compelling the Minister for Justice to:

- Procure the immediate filing of Applicant's ex parte motions refused today;
- Direct An Garda Síochána to accept and investigate complaints of obstruction (s.8 Criminal Justice (Public Order) Act 1994), coercion (common law, with assault elements under s.2 Non-Fatal Offences Against the Person Act 1997), harassment (s.10 Non-Fatal Offences Against the Person Act 1997), and perversion of the course of justice (common law) arising on 18 March 2026;

- Afford effective remedy pursuant to Article 40.3 Bunreacht na hÉireann, as vindicated in McFarlane v Ireland (ECtHR 10 September 2010) and O'Keeffe v Hickey [2009] IESC 39, remedy must be adequate, prompt, proportionate, not illusory.

Grounds

1. Constructive obstruction by court services at Merchants Quay Courthouse, Limerick: Siobhán O'Connor, Court Manager, refused to receive Applicant's ex parte motions at 10:15 appointment on 18 March 2026 without lawful justification, conduct repugnant to justice and Article 34 Bunreacht na hÉireann. At the same appointment, prior applications were observed as stamped yet unprocessed.

2. At conclusion of High Court listing (unknown judge, circa 11:30 hours today): judge vacated the courtroom. Applicant declared constructive obstruction repugnant to justice and Article 34 Bunreacht na hÉireann and tendered papers. Siobhán O'Connor thereafter pointed aggressively, raised voice, directed Applicant to depart, persisted notwithstanding Applicant's statement "you are harassing me," and did not desist, conduct repugnant to justice and Article 34 Bunreacht na hÉireann. Applicant withdrew after concluding business, depositing documents on registrar's counter. All conduct recorded on CCTV.

3. During transmission of complaint to Garda LK183 (on duty at Merchants Quay Courthouse): Siobhán O'Connor repeatedly intruded upon the area, purporting "fresh air", perceived by Applicant as harassment. Applicant withdrew with Garda LK183 to sufficient distance and proceeded with complaint. Garda LK183 exhibited difficulty comprehending constructive obstruction repugnant to justice and Article 34 Bunreacht na hÉireann; summoned sergeant (red-bearded, number unnoted). Sergeant likewise struggled, declined to receive complaint, and proffered extraneous legal advice.

4. At Henry Street Garda Station: attending Garda demonstrated no familiarity with Article 34. Sergeant LK162 refused receipt of complaint, advanced hypothetical scenarios detached from facts, and failed to comprehend constructive obstruction repugnant to justice and Article 34 Bunreacht na hÉireann.

5. The foregoing obstruction, coercion, harassment, and perversion of the course of justice are substantiated by CCTV footage from Merchants Quay Courthouse, court attendance records, Applicant's contemporaneous notes, and Garda logs (complaints refused), yet no investigation or remedy ensued.

6. The Minister, as ultimate overseer of court administration, Garda conduct, and access to justice, bears responsibility for this systemic failure, contrary to the rule of law upon which democracy depends, as affirmed by Mr Justice Brian Cregan on 4 March 2026: "democracy is based on the rule of law."

Relief sought

- Leave;
- Interim order directing immediate filing of motions;
- Discovery of CCTV (Merchants Quay), attendance list (barristers/solicitors at 10:30), Garda complaint registers;
- Such further or other relief as the Court deems just.

Dated 18 March 2026.

Applicant (of Am Weidebaum, Bóthar na Duga, Luimneach, Éire; holder of Irish Passport PU 2856758 and Passport Card C27040698, born 9 March 1968)

EX PARTE NOTICE OF MOTION FOR GRANT OF LEGAL AID

Take notice that on the next available sitting of this Honourable Court at Merchants Quay Courthouse, Limerick, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, the Applicant will apply ex parte for an order granting legal aid to defray the costs of an application to the court, pursuant to the Civil Legal Aid Act 1995 and Legal Aid Regulations 1996.

Grounds of Application

1. The Applicant is unemployed and without means, as evidenced by the attached proof of unemployment and social welfare statement.

2. The Applicant requires legal aid to pursue an application for access to personal records, as the matter involves complex administrative breaches by state actors, necessitating professional legal representation to ensure impartial and effective access to justice under Article 6 ECtHR and Article 47 EU Charter.

3. Reference is made to the correspondence from Mr. Delaney, Court House, Mulgrave Street, Limerick, wherein he advised on the costs of making an application to the court; such costs are prohibitive for the Applicant, who is unemployed and reliant on social welfare, and thus legal aid is necessary and expedient to vindicate the Applicant's rights.

4. The Applicant asserts standing as a citizen directly affected by administrative failures, pursuant to Article 9.3 Bunreacht na hÉireann and Crotty v An Taoiseach [1987] IR 713.

The Constitution of Ireland is the fundamental law of the State, as affirmed by Walsh J in Crotty v An Taoiseach [1987] IR 713, where he held that the Constitution confers unfettered sovereignty on the Government, which cannot be surrendered without referendum, constituting the indispensable foundation without which all other law collapses. The rule of law, as declared by the High Court on 4 March 2026, governs our democracy without exemption or variance. Accordingly, under section 6(1) of the Courts Service Act 1998, the Courts Service is obliged to perform all acts necessary or expedient for the administration of justice. The filing of this application is both necessary—to vindicate the Applicant's rights under Article 34 (access to courts) and Article 40.3 (personal rights)—and expedient, to prevent delay and denial of remedy. No administrative discretion may override these imperatives.

Following Lord Esher in Heaven v Pender (1883) 11 QBD 503, it must be apparent to any reasonable person that court officials, as servants of the State, are placed in a position where ordinary care requires them to avoid harm to constitutional rights. Article 9.3 Bunreacht na hÉireann declares fidelity to the nation and loyalty to the State as the fundamental political duty of all citizens—civil servants serving the court in particular. Their primary duty is the fundamental duty to the Constitution, which embodies the values and aspirations of the people: without such, no rights exist. Filing this application upholds that fidelity.

Mr. Delaney, in the exercise of his good faith direction, directed the Applicant to seek legal advice. The Applicant complied forthwith, engaging Mr. King, solicitor. Notwithstanding such compliance, no substantive response has been forthcoming, nor any indication of intent to act. The Applicant advises that solicitors operate under contractual obligation: payment for services rendered, best efforts at producing factual presentation, and prosecution of the matter. 'Due diligence and reasonable skill' does encompass inaction at exorbitant cost.

The rule of law cannot be satisfied by courteous delay or empty correspondence. Legal aid is therefore not a courtesy, it is the only mechanism by which the Applicant may access justice without committing fraud upon a professional. The Applicant satisfies the means test under section 28(2) of the Legal Aid Act 1995 (income below threshold, assets exempt) and the merit test under section 28(3) (reasonable prospect of success, interests of justice demand access). Denial of legal aid would render Article 34 (access to courts) illusory and breach the Board's statutory obligation under section 5(1) to provide aid where requirements are met. The Board has no discretion to refuse.

Accordingly, the Applicant applies ex parte for legal aid under the Legal Aid Act 1995, sections 3 and 5, so as to instruct a solicitor and, through him, a barrister. The solicitor shall present the facts to the court; the barrister shall represent the Applicant before it. In this way, the court shall be properly informed, and the Applicant shall hear the court in turn—without breach of contract, without fraud, and in accordance with the rule of law, as the Honourable Justice Brian Cregan recently uttered from the bench on 4 March 2026: "We live in a democracy governed by the rule of law."

5. This is an administrative matter only; no criminal allegations are raised. The Applicant seeks legal aid to cover costs associated with filing and processing the application, including any court fees or solicitor engagement.

Relief sought:

- Order granting legal aid to the Applicant to defray the costs of the court application.
- Such other directions as the Court deems fit.

Dated this 18th day of March 2026.

Limerick Court Officelimerickcourtoffice@courts.ie

Dear Mr. O'Barróid,

This office has previously explained how to make an application to a Judge. The general correspondence we have received from you does not constitute lodgement of an application or making an application. Judges do not engage in direct correspondence with court users. In this e-mail, I will provide a step by step outline to assist you in understanding the procedure to make an application to the District Court Judge in Limerick.

Here are the 3 procedural steps required to make an application in the District Court for criminal matters:

Prepare your physical printed/written application. The choice of documents is up to you but the application must include details that identify a single jurisdiction and a return date, typically on the first page. The jurisdiction identifies the location where the application will be made, commonly "Limerick District Court, District No. 13". The return date is the calendar date when the application should be listed for Court. On that return date, you or a legal representative must explain your application in person to the judge. The return date can be any Thursday when the District Court is sitting.
Attend the public counter located in the Courthouse at least 2 full days in advance of your selected return date. This means attending on a Monday if your return date is the following Thursday. Hand in your physical application from step 1 at the counter and depending on the contents, pay the fees to have the documents stamped and lodged. A failure to pay the relevant fee may mean the associated document is not properly before the Court and the judge will decide how to proceed during your hearing in step 3. You are not exempt from fees as you can see at https://www.courts.ie/organisation-information/instructions-and-exemptions and the list of relevant fees are located at https://www.courts.ie/organisation-information/district-court-fees.
For quick reference and to assist you:
An application for a private prosecution by common informer is €25.
An ex-parte Notice of Motion is €130.
A sworn affidavit is €15.
A summons is €15.
Attend the District Court sitting in Court 6 Mulgrave Street courthouse on your return date from 10:30AM. Your name will be called and the judge will hear your application and make decisions on how to proceed. The judge will have the physical application you lodged in step 2 in front of them.

The Courts Service has a responsibility to use its resources in an equitable manner. Unreasonably persistent and demanding actions can take up a disproportionate amount of time and hinder the delivery of other services. Your communications fall into this category. For that reason, this office has now exhausted all avenues of providing support and will not engage with you again by correspondence.

EX PARTE NOTICE OF MOTION FOR SUMMONSES

TAKE NOTICE that on the next sitting of the District Court, Courthouses, Limerick, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, the Applicant will apply ex parte for the issue of summonses against the following members of An Garda Síochána stationed at Henry Street Garda Station, Limerick (names to be ascertained by discovery if necessary):

1. The Garda who effected detention at approximately 09:45 hours on 18 March 2025; I identify the arresting officer to be LK 97 Mr. John O'Sullivan

2. The Garda who forcibly removed the Applicant's mobile telephone from his hand at approximately 09:55 hours on the said date; I identify the Officer to be Lk 410(?) Mr. Coffey

3. Such other Gardaí as participated in the refusal of access to legal advice, judicial process, and consular notification between 09:45 and 11:30 hours on the said date. I identify involved in the arresting force as LK 610 Mr. Anthony Malony.

The grounds upon which the summonses are sought are:

a. Battery contrary to section 2 of the Non-Fatal Offences Against the Person Act 1997, committed by the forcible removal of the Applicant's mobile telephone without lawful justification;

b. False imprisonment, in that the Applicant was detained and deprived of liberty without statutory authority permitting the refusal of his requests to communicate with a solicitor, to be brought before a judge, and to have consular authorities notified, such refusals being contrary to Articles 38 and 40 of Bunreacht na hÉireann and Article 36 of the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations 1963;

c. The said acts occurred between 09:45 and 11:30 hours on 18 March 2025 at Henry Street Garda Station, Limerick, prior to any completion of statutory process under the Mental Health Act 2001.

d. I apply for extension of certiorari on ground of obstruction through Ms. Ann O’Sullivan HSE and obvious obstruction before Judge Harny on the 10/12/2025 in open court.

AND the Applicant further applies for the following ancillary relief:

That this Honourable Court, pursuant to section 10 of the Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act 1851 as preserved and applied by section 79 of the Courts of Justice Act 1924 and section 33 of the Courts (Supplemental Provisions) Act 1961, and in accordance with the practice of the District Court under Order 12 of the District Court Rules 1997 (S.I. No. 93/1997 as amended), accept this application in the first instance by electronic mail, the signed original having been dispatched by registered post and to arrive forthwith, and thereupon issue the summonses herein sought without requirement of oath from the Applicant, the verification if any being administered by the Justice receiving the information.

The Applicant seeks the issue of the said summonses returnable before the District Court at Mulgrave Street, Limerick.

Applicant (of Am Weidebaum, Bóther na Dúga, Luimneach, Éire; holder of Irish Passport PU 2856758 and Passport Card C27040698, born 9 March 1968)

EX PARTE NOTICE OF MOTION FOR ISSUE OF SUMMONSES

Take notice that on the next available sitting of this Honourable Court at Mulgrave Street Courthouse, Limerick, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, the Applicant will apply ex parte for the issue of summonses against such members of An Garda Síochána stationed at Henry Street Garda Station, Limerick (names to be ascertained by discovery if necessary) as participated in the events of 18 March 2025.

Grounds of Application

1. On 18 March 2025, between approximately 09:45 and 11:30 hours, during detention pursuant to Section 12 of the Mental Health Act 2001, the Applicant was subjected to a forced strip-search, comprising removal of clothing, exposure, and visual inspection, without any lawful justification or reasonable grounds.

2. The Garda application for medical recommendation (Form 5B) discloses no evidence of a current, serious likelihood of immediate harm to the Applicant or others, as mandated by Section 12(1). The document relies solely on historical, unverified assertions spanning 2021 to 2025: alleged expulsion from Germany (factually disputed), prior arrests, purported threatening communications, and an Interpol reference, none of which constitute fresh or contemporaneous basis for detention or search.

3. The foregoing mirrors an identical arbitrary strip-search imposed prior to the Applicant's deportation from Germany on 22 July 2022 pursuant to Aufenthaltsgesetz §58: again, absent any concrete, present risk, predicated only on outdated information.

4. Both instances constitute an unjustified and disproportionate interference with personal integrity, amounting to unlawful assault under Section 2 of the Non-Fatal Offences Against the Person Act 1997 (intentional or reckless application of force without consent or excuse), and a grave violation of human dignity.

5. Such conduct is repugnant to Article 1 of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union ("Human dignity is inviolable. It must be respected and protected") and Article 1 of the Grundgesetz ("Die Würde des Menschen ist unantastbar"), provisions of supreme, binding force across Member States.

6. Further, the failure of Ireland and Germany to investigate or remedy this transnational pattern contravenes Article 67 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (establishment of an area of freedom, security and justice with effective access to justice) and Article 4(3) of the Treaty on European Union (principle of sincere cooperation).

7. Formal pre-action notices were issued to:

- Jim O'Callaghan, Minister for Justice;
- Jennifer Carroll MacNeill, Minister for Health;
- Stefanie Hubig, Federal Minister of Justice;
- Nina Warken, Federal Minister of Health;
- Christian Heinz, Hessian Minister of Justice;
- Michael McGrath, EU Commissioner for Justice.

No response has been received, constituting ratification by omission.

8. The Applicant asserts standing as a citizen directly affected, pursuant to Article 9.3 of Bunreacht na hÉireann and the principles affirmed in Crotty v An Taoiseach [1987] IR 713.

9. In the absence of specific statutory provision for transnational arbitrary detention and strip-search, this Court is obliged to apply higher law, as established in judicial tradition: judges declare law (Bacon), no authority excuses dignity crimes (Hagenbach, 1474), and wilful blindness to justice is folly (Voltaire).

The Applicant seeks:

- The immediate issue of the summonses sought, returnable before this Court;
- Such ancillary relief as the Court deems fit, including directions for discovery of Garda records.

Dated this day 18 th of March 2026.

Hochverrat

In the solemn act of ratification by referendum, the sovereign people have declared the Constitution a finished instrument, not a work in progress. Article 4(2) of the Treaty pledges respect for that constitutional structure – not for its eventual explication by a higher court. Article 9.3 Bunreacht na hÉireann binds every citizen in fidelity to the State; the State is the Constitution, the Constitution is the people, and the people have spoken. Therefore, the judiciary must not treat the text as aspirational; it must treat it as final, or the Treaty itself collapses as a nullity.

Re: HP 2025.6439 , Refusal to File & Obstruction

Madam,

1. On 3 December 2025 this motion was accepted for filing under HP 2025.6439.

2. Since then two unsigned rejections have been returned:
– first on 20th January 2026
– second on 14 February 2026 – "documents not fit for judge". No grounds stated.

3. Simultaneously, Michael Delany (Office Manager, Limerick District Court) has intercepted every application:
– he states "correspondence is not an application";
– he refuses to docket under Order 15 r.1 District Court Rules 1997;

4. The chain is now complete:
– High Court Registrar refuses;

– District Court Manager refuses;
– High Courts Judges run, District Court judges are incompetent

5. This is not administrative error.
It is systematic denial of access to court under Article 40.3 Bunreacht na hÉireann and Article 6 ECHR.

6. I therefore require:
a. Immediate stamping and listing of HP 2025.6439 before a High Court Judge; a sitting one, I dare say.
b. Summonses to issue against Michael Delany and the other named officials for obstruction;
c. Written confirmation within seven days or the matter will be brought to the Judicial Council under s.15 Judicial Council Act 2019.

7. This letter is dated Valentine's Day, 2026.
It is not love.
It is warning.

8. All communications from 22 July 2022 to date —

CENTRAL OFFICE

To the Registrar
Central Office, High Court
Four Courts, Inns Quay, Dublin 7
3 December 2025

Dear Registrar,

Re: Record No. 2025/6439 – Derek O'Barróid (lay litigant)
In addition to the papers lodged today, I respectfully apply for the following orders/directions:

Full exemption from all copying and certification fees
I am unemployed, have no income or assets, and can afford only this single visit to a Commissioner for Oaths and one set of copies. I rely on Article 40.3° Bunreacht na hÉireann (access to justice) and the inherent jurisdiction of the Court.

Grant of Civil Legal Aid

I apply under the Civil Legal Aid Act 1995 for a legal-aid certificate to cover representation in these proceedings. I am indigent and the case raises serious constitutional and ECHR issues.

Permission to file and serve all future documents electronically

I apply under Order 84 r.20A RSC and Practice Direction HC119 for leave to file, serve, and receive all documents by qualified electronic signature (eIDAS-compliant). I have no funds for repeated postage or travel.

Transfer of all hearings to Limerick Circuit Court sitting as High Court on Circuit

I am unable to afford repeated travel or overnight accommodation in Dublin. I rely on Article 34.3.4° Bunreacht na hÉireann (High Court on Circuit) and the Courts Service power to assign sittings outside Dublin where justice requires. Limerick is my place of residence and the location of the impugned events.

I swear I have no means whatsoever and that the HSE has refused to document any disability, leaving me without supports.

I request these applications be placed before the Judge on the next ex-parte list (Monday 8 December 2025) together with the leave application.

Yours faithfully

Derek O'Barróid

RE: Correspondence to the Chief Justice

Dear. Mr. O'Barróid,

I refer to your correspondence date 8 May 2025, which was addressed to the Chief Justice.

As per the information notice published on the website of the Supreme Court (www.supremecourt.ie) the Chief Justice may direct an appropriate official to reply to correspondence on his behalf. He has asked me to do so, and to convey to you that no discourtesy is intended by this.

The Chief Justice has no function of dealing with complaints in relation to the matters complained of in your letter and there is no complaints procedure available through the Office of the Chief Justice. Similarly, the Chief Justice has no jurisdiction to deal with your complaint, or to take any action on foot of it.

Furthermore, as the Constitution requires that justice be administered in public, the Chief Justice does not enter into correspondence with persons in relation to court proceedings and deals only with cases which have been brought before the Supreme Court in accordance with the procedures set out in the law and the Rules of Court.

Yours sincerely,
